To,

Shri Sanjay Agarwal,

Sir,

Sub: - Undue delay in granting family pension – Case of Barnali Banerjee, unmarried daughter of late Shri Manoj Bandhyopadhyay, Retd. From DGM (QA), Kolkata – PPO No.KTK/CCA/IDA/SA/QA BG/68 A dated 10.08.2006 - residing at 4/10, Bhuban Mohan Roy Road, Simplex Garden, Kolkata – 700 008 - req.

Smt. Barnali Banerjee, the unmarried daughter of the above retiree applied for family pension on 06.7.2015, consequent on the death of her parents. All the documents scheduled to be attached were sent. But the CCA, Karnataka has refused to accept the unemployment and unmarried certificate issued by the Local Councillor and insisted for certificates from the revenue officer. It is pertinent to mention here that both West Bengal and Kolkata CCAs are accepting such certificates issued by Local Councillors.

However, Smt. Barnal Banerjee searched for such revenue officers but in vain. There upon she obtained the certificate from an IAS officer and First Class Magistrate and was duly submitted. But to her dismay, the CCA, Karnataka, did not accept this certificate also. Sir, the unhelpful attitude of the CCA, Karnataka, is causing much agony to the applicant, who has no other source of income to pull on.

I would therefore request your kind intervention in the case so that a genuine issue pending for the last three years is settled.

Thanking you,
Yours sincerely,

K.G.Jayaraj
General Secretary
